

ANIMAL TRANSPORT RECORD

Disclaimer: This document is NOT required for cattle going to a feedlot or to another farm. It is only necessary when animals are being transported by ANYONE from farm to an auction/sale, assembly yard or packing plant. It is the responsibility of whoever is transporting the animals to keep this document for at least 2 years following transport

AT TIME OF LOADING
Date of shipment:	Time of loading:
Producer/shipper name:	Premise Identification number, if available:
Producer/shipper address:
Name and address of transport company, if different from above:
Driver(s) name(s):	License/registration number of trailer:
Date and time of last access to feed, water and rest prior to loading: Date: _____ Time: _____
Area – floor area available to animals (m ² or ft ²):
Date and place trailer was last cleaned/disinfected:
Number of animals on load:	Estimated total weight of animals on load:
Description of animals on the load, i.e. sex, type (cows, feeders, etc.):
IN TRANSIT
Did any animals become compromised in transit? YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>	Number of compromised animals:
If yes, describe what reasonable measures were taken to limit suffering :
If applicable, provide the date, time/duration and place where the animals had access to feed, water and rest during transit: Date: _____ Time/duration: _____ Location: _____	